

AUGUST 1972

C
O
P
Y

Brigadier General John M. Dunn
Military Assistant to the Vice President
The White House

Dear General Dunn,

Tried to reach you a couple of times to congratulate you on your selection for promotion to Major General. The Army, too, is to be congratulated on its good judgment.

With every good wish,

Faithfully,

[s] Dick Walters

OFFICE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT
WASHINGTON

August 2, 1972

Lieutenant General
Vernon A. Walters, USA
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear General Walters:

It was very kind of you to take the time to write to me on the recent, happy occasion of my selection for promotion.

Again, may I take this opportunity to extend my congratulations to you on your present assignment and to send you my very best wishes for success.

Sincerely,

Mike

JOHN M. DUNN, Brig Gen, USA
Assistant to the Vice President for
Foreign and Military Affairs

*It was good to see you at Gen Strickler's
farewell.
Mike*

OFFICE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT
WASHINGTON

June 29, 1972

Lieutenant General Vernon A. Walters, USA
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear General Walters:

Many thanks for your notable hospitality on the occasion of my recent visit. As I told you then, the support which this Office has received from the Central Intelligence Agency in the past has been uniformly excellent. The Vice President has expressed his great satisfaction particularly with the help provided in the preparation for and conduct of his foreign travel. You may be certain of our wish to be helpful to you in any possible way.

You have my very best wishes for every success in your important and demanding assignment.

Respectfully,

JOHN M. DUNN, Brig Gen, USA
Assistant to the Vice President for
Foreign and Military Affairs

OFFICE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT
Approved For Release 2003/09/29 : CIA-RDP80R01731R001900030032-8
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Sprio F. Gurne
VICE PRESIDENT

Lieutenant General Vernon A. Walters, USA
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505